

Children's Farmyard VISITS

Pre-K–2nd (or contact us)

FEE: $4/student (1 adult free with every 5 students, $6/additional adult).

Autumn at the Farmyard

September & October 2014

Visit your favorite farm animals — goat kids, pigs, and sheep, milk a cow and a goat, and make your own bracelet out of our sheep's wool! At this quieter time of year, you'll enjoy more personal attention from our Farmyard Educators. A fall field trip is a unique and meaningful way to kick off the school year!

Spring at the Farmyard

May & June 2015

Spring marks the opening of the farmyard, with all its new arrivals. From chicks to lambs, and from calves to piglets, the farm's new-borns are sure to make a visit to the farmyard a memorable experience!

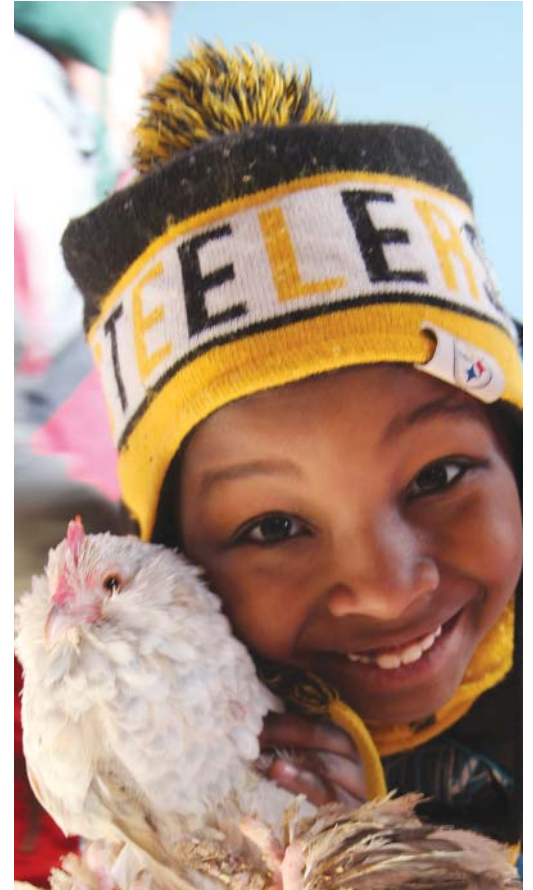

Give your students a hands-on opportunity to discover the important role that farms play in their lives with a visit to the Children's Farmyard.

Field trips are self-guided: You are free to explore at your own pace! Hands-on activities (such as milking a cow or working with wool) are offered every half hour beginning at 10:30. You may participate in any or all of these activities.

Teachers, chaperones, and students can also explore the hiking trails, bakery, woodshop area, and cheese making near the farmyard.

Groups typically visit for 1–2 hours, but are welcome to spend more time in educational exploration if desired.

The Farmyard also welcomes your program or camp group in July & August. Contact Cat Wright (see below).
