A n annual contributor to the Farm recently remarked that he had always thought the goal of the nonprofit had been to save Shelburne Farms from wholesale development. It wasn’t until this spring that he realized the education organization here was created to help shape the future of the Earth beyond the Farm’s gates.

The whole idea behind Shelburne Farms is to shift society onto a sustainable path, primarily by educating young people. As we steward the Farm’s land and buildings and strengthen local food and energy systems, we are building a living campus to support this vision.

The development threat to the Farm’s future in the 1970’s and 1980’s presented the opportunity to solidify and exemplify values, principles and practices we believe are important for a sustainable future. Now, through our outreach and partnership projects serving educators and schools, we are using what we are learning to support sustainability education in nearby communities in Vermont and as far away as China.

Propelling us forward is the dedication of our members, volunteers and staff. It is you – our donors and friends – who encourage, support and inspire us. We are grateful for your trust as year by year Shelburne Farms works to make a real and lasting difference and to care for this beautiful place.

We have come a long way since the nonprofit was founded in 1972. Thank you for being part of the community supporting this hopeful endeavor.

Mary Jane Gentry  Casey Murrow  Alec Webb
BOARD CO-CHAIR  BOARD CO-CHAIR  PRESIDENT

Shelburne Farms is a nonprofit education organization, 1,400-acre working farm and National Historic Landmark that is shared with the community.

The mission of Shelburne Farms is to cultivate a conservation ethic for a sustainable future by • practicing the stewardship of natural and agricultural resources and
• educating young people to become ecologically literate and caring citizens who make choices that create a healthy and just world.
We extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the community of new and long-time friends whose generous support ensures the continued success and vitality of Shelburne Farms. In addition to listing Honorary Stewards, Land Stewardship Fund donors, Endowment Funds, and Stewardship Circle members, this listing includes individuals, businesses, foundations and organizations who contributed to Shelburne Farms between January 1 and December 31, 2010. The accuracy of this listing is very important to us. Please let us know if you can’t find your name or if you are listed incorrectly so that we can correct our records.

Thank you all!
